9:15 to 12:00 Morning Session – Led by Thomas Orjala, UBF General Councilor and member of the Outreach Committee

The focus of this session will be to explore what leadership is and how we will use our time together improving our skills as dynamic leaders destined to bring the truths of the Urantia Book to our troubled and confused world.

There will be an open discussion about our visions for projects, activities and events that will fulfill our goals. There will be opportunities for each individual to describe their leadership purpose/project that moves them to action. Everyone can present a vision of their own and make a commitment to leading and fulfilling on that project. The Sunday morning session will be a continuation and expansion of this session.
